Weakness of Hoboken Eleven, Rather Than Princeton's Strength, Responsible.

Princeton, N. J., September 23.— Princeton spened its season with an easy victory over Stevens Institute on University Field this afternoon, wad-ing through the Hoboken eleven for eacts of nine touchdowns, which, suping through the Hoboken eleven for a total of nine touchdowns, which, supplemented by eight goals and a goal from field, made the final score 65 to 0. The Tigers resorted almost entirely to straight football, starting all their plays from the new end tackle back formation, but the one-sidedness of the score was due more to the visitors' weaknesses than to any startling performances by the home team, achieves at the college is taking new life this year. Coach Doak is well pleased with the outlook for base-ball and basketball. He is trying out his baseball squad in number of pre-liminary contests this fall with the team at Burlington with the Guilford College squad, and with other nearby teams.

Named by Progressives to Oppose Carter Glass.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., September 28.—The Progressives of the Sixth Congressional District met here this afternoon and nominated Colonel James Browning, of Roanoke, as their candidate for Congress to oppose Carter Glass, the Democratic nominee. The convention was most enthusiastic, and it was stated that Colonel Browning will make an active campaign.

Republicans in this district have decided not to put a candidate in the field.

Found Many Bnd Reads.

The oft-told story of bad roads was brought to Richmond yesterday by William C. Jackson, of 1111% Grove Avenue, on his return from an automobile trip to New York. While the going was hard nearly all the way, Mr. Jackson reported that the roads in Virginia were particularly poor. In spite of unfavorable conditions, the round trip from Richmond to New York was made in ten days, which included numerous stopovers of a day or more.

Before introducing Mr. Eggleston President Aiderman made a statement as to the registration. The total enrollment up to this morning was 773, based upon the dean's figures. The set enrollment is 762, as increase of affects over that of last year at the sease time. It would be selected over that of last year at the sease time. It would be selected over that of last year at the sease time time of the season, so the expectation and the season of the season, so the expectation for the year will be about 846.

Mr. Eggleston gave a thoughtful address on "Education and Citimenship." He discussed the real functions of education and these broadened the scope to embrace the proper function of public education. He said in partic. "That the question of eithership is neglected, or, if taught at all, is treated with the barest formalism, is shown in various ways. It is shown by the fact that not three schools in tentral citizenship—the obligations of discussable—as a visal principle, as a visal principle. Before introducing Mr. Egglesto
